

Like It Like That (radio Edit)

Guy Sebastian

Uuuuuh! Hey hey! Ain't it a funny thing, how you run to me
When he sends you spinning out of control
To the N-th degree
You know I make it right, I'm at your command
You can tell me anything you want you know
I'm gonna understand I won't let you down, break it down-d-down-d-down
Never let you down, break it down Hey-yo, do ya like it like that I'm the only one who can love ya like that Now, Hey-yo, do ya like it like that
I'm the only one who can love ya like that, hey So should I shut my mouth,
And should I hide my heart
Or should I let it out into the light that you
And him should be apart
Is he hangin on, to every word you speak
Does he rub your back and play with your hair
Until u fall asleep, I don't think so, baby I won't let you down, break it down-d-down-d-down
Never let you down, break it down Hey-yo, do you like it like that
I'm the only one who can love you like that now
Hey-yo, do you like it like that
I'm the only one who can love you like that now
Hey-yo, do you like it like that
I'm the only one who can love you like that now
Hey-yo, do ya like it like that
I'm the only one who can love you like that He might say he's in love with you
But he'll never do the things that I can do
You can be your watch with the diamond band
Because I know your better than the back of your hand Now, Hey-yo, do you like it like that
I'm the only one who can love you like that now
(repeat)
