

Moment by Moment

Danielle Miraglia

Moment by moment
Day by day
Stop and feel the music
Donâ€™t wish your life away

I heard this so many times before, but I never listened
Whatâ€™s that noise on the other side of the door.
I wanna know what Iâ€™m missing.

Moment by moment
Day by day
Stop and feel the music
Donâ€™t wish your life away

You were telling me a story and I was looking at the clock
There was somewhere I had to be. I didnâ€™t have time to talk.
Sometime in early fall, I thought about writing you a song.
Later that day I got a phone call and they said you were gone.

Moment by moment
Day by day
Stop and feel the music
Donâ€™t wish your life away

So Iâ€™ll feel every breath
Forget the past and whatâ€™s ahead
Not another regret the things I should have said

Moment by moment
Day by day
Stop and feel the music
Donâ€™t wish your life away
