All the Stars In Heaven

Ashtar Command

If heaven knew the reason that Iâ€™m in the state Iâ€™m in, the angels would come calling, just to bring me back hom again. If I could tell them why I feel the way I do, well they would come running, just to bring my heart back to you.

But I canâ€™t go on pretending, that theyâ€™ll be a happy ending, and I still want you for my life, but I know it isnâ right. And of all the stars in heaven, I saw yours shining bright and all my heartâ€™s desires wished for your love tonight.

Just trying to find a reason why I could lose a love so true, just trying to find what happened to the best thing I ever knew. If I could find a way, you know Iâ€™d make it all to you, â€˜cuz taking you for granted was the last thing I want to do.

But I canâ€™t go on pretending, that theyâ€™ll be a happy ending, and I still want you for my life, but I know it isnâ right. And of all the stars in heaven, I saw yours shining bright and all my heartâ€™s desires wished for your love tonight. And of all the stars in heaven, I saw yours shining bright and all my heartâ€™s desires wished for your love tonight.
