

Woman

Honne

Ten out of ten

You killed it once again

'Cause you're doing fine

This is to show you

Just how much we need you in our lives This place wouldn't be the same without you

You could say that it would be a little worse

There's just something about you

With you it is all more worth Oh, never did a woman do so much to me

Oh, you've got some kind of hold on me

All the things that you do

You do it all so gracefully

Oh, never did a woman do so much to me Can we just stop?

It's our time to

Learn yourself to praise you

'Cause we do it wrong

And you make it right

You bring the balance to our lives, you've done it all alone This place wouldn't be the same without you

You can say that it had been a whole lot worse, yeah

'Cause there's just something about you

And with you it is all more worth Never did a woman do so much to me

Oh, you've got some kind of hold on me

All the things that you do

You do it all so gracefully

Oh, never did a woman do so much to me And I thought I should tell you

How loved you are

How loved you are

Just how loved you are

And if we are together

Oh, we're going far

We're going far

We're going far And I thought I should tell you

How loved you are

How loved you are

Just how loved you are

And if we are together

We're going far

We're going far

We're going far
