Dead in My Arms

Carnifex

Walking down the hall
They said they heard you scream you'd miss me
As you're choking in my arms
All I want to hear is "I'm sorry"

I want to drown myself in the stillness of your eyes
I want to drown myself in the emptiness of my lies

Faith can only take her so far
Now these tears fall like embers
Burning her skin pushing her further and further

A tunnel so dark all I could focus on was you
Broken I fell before your hanging body
Desparate for life
Desparate to hear you call me

Walking down the hall
They said they heard you scream you'd miss me
As you're dead in my arms
All I want to hear is "I'm sorry"
