Braid

honey please don't ignore me please accept this call i'm on the corner of cough and cold and i'm a lovestruck lost soulplease save me from the superpowers that i don't believe in save me please
i'm lost and alone
i can't come home
i'm stuck in a phone boothhoney understand me i'm not sure to fly in fact i'm super stupid tonight and all the loose ends remain untiedplease save me from the superpowers that i don't believe in
save me please
i'm lost and alone
i can't come home
i'm stuck in a phone booth againbut once in your arms we'll rise above the ground you and me and the beautiful aerial view of sunrise city
i'm never coming down in your arms we'll rise above the clouds me and you in the sweetest sheets of blue i'm never coming downbut come and pick me up first please.
