As Bad As It Gets

Thompson Square

You always make us late
Messing with your make-up
And it's a big debate
If you think you're pretty enough
You laugh at all your jokes
When nobody else does
You're always sneakin' smokes
And leaving the seat up
You know, you know, you know you drive me crazy
But we're gonna make it, that's a pretty safe bet
You know, you know, you know I love you, baby
That's why we ain't killed each other yet
I guess we got it good, I guess we got it good
If that's as bad as it gets
Your closet's full of shoes
And clothes you never wear
Two hundred dollar do's
You're still cursing your hair
I hate your poker nights
Hanging here with all your buddies
And mornings walking 'round the house
In nothing but your undies
You know, you know, you know you drive me crazy
But we're gonna make it, that's a pretty safe bet
You know, you know, you know I love you, baby
That's why we ain't killed each other yet
I guess we got it good, I guess we got it good
If that's as bad as it gets
You love shopping, I hate shopping
I know you go 'cause it makes me smile
Then when we get home, yeah, when we get home
You know I know you're gonna drive me wild
Yeah, baby, baby, baby
You know, you know, you know you drive me crazy
But we're gonna make it, that's a pretty safe bet
You know, you know, you know I love you, baby
That's why we ain't killed each other yet
I guess we got it good, I guess we got it good
I guess we got it good, if that's as bad as it gets

Guess we got it good
If that's as bad as it gets
