Tabula Rasa

Sinch

The kid next door is defective The trees are rotting and bending to the ground Watch the untainted innocence Collapse into lewd misfortunes And I swear but the truth feels so empty And I run but there's darkness everywhereParalyzed, you can't see Paranoid, you can't sleep Through the lies that surround youParanoid, what you can't see Paralyzed, is your disease Hypnotized, is all around youI'm at least half a mile away But much further than I ever thought I'd be To finding my way out of this hole But the darkness here is so soothingAnd I swear but the truth gets me nowhere And I run but there's temptations everywhereParanoid, you can't sleep Paralyzed, you can't see Through the lies, that surround youParanoid and you can't see Paralyzed but your disease Hypnotized was everything about youSubstance seals leaks in you Damaged ship, so we sinkRight before my eyes But it's putting out the fire well Carnage lights Up the sky but it's just as wellNo one's fine Sinking into darkness It's no surpriseParalyzed, you can't see Paranoid, you can't sleep Through the lies that surround youParanoid, what you can't see Paralyzed, is your disease Hypnotized is everything, was everything about youBut you can't taste it 'Cause you'll just waste it

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/