Try It, You'll Like It Polka

Dick Rodgers

Try It, You'll Like It

It used to be on Saturdays Iâ€™d stay home alone
There was no one there I could talk to and no one I could phone
And then one day a friend came by and got me out of bed
He was going to a polka dance and this is what he said:
Try it, youâ€™ll like it. Try it, youâ€™ll like it.
So, I tried it and I liked it now I play them every day.
Try it, youâ€™ll like it. Try it, youâ€™ll like it.
Try it, youâ€™ll like it, the Polkaâ€™s here to stay.
I have friends who have a band and they play rock-n-roll
I told them about polkas and they said it has no soul
I asked them if they ever gave polka music a try
They said, â€œNo.â€• And I looked at them and gave them this reply:
Try it, youâ€™ll like it. Try it, youâ€™ll like it.
So, they tried it and they liked it now they play them every day.
Try it, youâ€™ll like it, try it, youâ€™ll like it.
Try it, youâ€™ll like it, the Polkaâ€™s here to stay.

One time I saw some dancers dancing to a shuffle beat
The rhumba and the cha-cha they could really move their feet
I asked them if they ever went to a polka dance
They said, â€œNo.â€• so then I said, â€œGive the dance a chance.â€•
Try it, youâ€™ll like it. Try it, youâ€™ll like it.
So, they tried it and they liked it now they play them every day.
Try it, youâ€™ll like it, try it, youâ€™ll like it.
Try it, youâ€™ll like it, the Polkaâ€™s here to stay.
Friends out there in music land donâ€™t condemn what you havenâ€™t tried
Come out to Dick Rodgers dance or stay away and hide
The polka is the coming thing so try it if you will
The happy sound of polkas will give you quite a thrill
Try it, youâ€™ll like it. Try it, youâ€™ll like it.
So, they tried it and they liked it now they play them every day.
Try it, youâ€™ll like it. Try it, youâ€™ll like it.
Try it, youâ€™ll like it, the Polkaâ€™s here to stay.
