Only You

Cartel

I hear you calling out my name All of the elements will fade Never before has love looked safe Never again will it look the same But then we fall back now to this empty house There the wars will rage And if you leave me now in this empty house Baby, it's okay Oh, and it's only you, yeah, it's only you It's only you and me Oh, and it's only you, yeah, it's only you It's only you and me, yeah And I feel you crawling out my veins Leaving the walls inside with flames Burning the emptiness I've saved Until lonely you remain But then my lungs collapse and you pull me out Forever I've been changed Honey, you can take me now 'til it all runs out Baby, it's okay Oh, but there's only you, yeah, it's only you It's only you I see Girl, if it's only you, yeah, it's only you It's only you and me, yeah Can you feel it now? I've weighed it all out Here and now my world turns inside out And I swear I, I hear you calling I hear you calling out my name Only you, yeah, it's only you It's only you I see Girl, if it's only you, yeah it's only you It's only you and me, yeah It's only you, yeah, it's only you It's only you I see It's only you, yeah, it's only you It's only you and me
