

Hooked On You

Sweet Sensation

I can't explain what I'm going through
Wish I could find my right words to say
Losing control and it's over you
Nobody else could make me feel this way
Could it just be that I'm curious
And I wanna make you play my game?
But something tells me that it's serious
Because I go insane when I hear your name
I'm hooked on you
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I'm hooked on you
What can I do? It's over you
I try to hide it but I know it's true
My body trembles when I look in your eyes
I'm so turned on, I don't know what to do
It seems a touch can make my temperature rise
Could it just be that I'm curious
And I want to make you play my game?
But something tells me that it's serious
Because I go insane when I hear your name
I'm hooked on you
Oh, oh, oh, oh, yeah
I'm hooked on you
You make me feel so good
What can I do? It's over you
I'm hooked on you
I'm needing you, baby
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I'm hooked on you
I'm needing you, baby
What can I do?
Won't you say you love me?
What can I do? It's over you
Days go warm, and nights go cold
You are the one I need to hold
Try decide, this love is made
Loving you can set me free
I'm hooked on you, oh, can't you see?
Hearts on fire
Higher, higher
Nobody else can make me feel
The way that you do
Could it be that this time
Love has taken all control?
You're the one who's touch I need
The one I need to hold
Could it be that this time
Love has taken all control?
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I'm hooked on you

You're the one I need to hold
What can I do? It's over you
