Day Drinker

Adam Faucett

Iâ€™ve seen all I need to see
And nobody nowhere is gonna outdrink me
Itâ€™s so lonesome in the afternoon when youâ€™re the only one with nothing to do
Daydrinker
Daydrinker
All my buddies who have me in years
Theyâ€™ve measured time through the brails and the clears
They said old man can we please give you a hand
Yeah itâ€™s a wretched world out side
Dim them lights and let me hide.
Daydrinker
Daydrinker
I â€˜ll call you cuz you wonâ€™t call me
Put on that jukebox and pour me something cheap
She only calls me baby cuz she knows sheâ€™s getting paid
Iâ€™ve hurt you and done myself wrong
If God would return through his tears heâ€™d hear our songs
His voice would quake and tremble and say
Iâ€™m sorry itâ€™s been so long.
Daydrinker
Daydrinker
Iâ€™ve loved many in my life they all moved on.
maybe they all tried
You canâ€™t reach a man who already died.
And Iâ€™ve said all I need to say.
And Iâ€™ve seen all I need to see.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/