

Walk Away (maybe)

Good Charlotte

I made this bed, I choose to lie in it
And live with my regrets
And sleep with what I said
Could this be the end
Am I standing on the edge
Of everything I wanted now I was afraid
I was afraid Well maybe I'm just scared
To face the things I fear
It's easier to walk away
From everything, yeah Separate my soul
With all the things we shared
I'm falling to pieces now
Say a prayer for me
(Say a prayer for me)
When you go to bed
(Cause)
I'm in need of your faith now I was afraid Well maybe I'm just scared
To face the things I fear
It's easier to walk away
From everything, yeah
If we could just re-set
And live in happiness
Instead of our regrets
We'd salvage everything, yeah
We don't have to walk away, yeah Pray for me now
I'm in need of faith
Pray for me now
I'm in need And maybe I'm just scared
To face the things I feared
It's easier to walk away
From everything, yeah
If we could just reset
And live in happiness
Instead of our regrets
We'd salvage everything, yeah And maybe I'm just scared
To face the things I failed
It's easier to walk away from everything, yeah
Walk away from everything, yeah
