Whale vs Nine Tigers

Bowmont

Everything is just fine, I'm five
My mind is taking me for a ride.
It's like an open door, so I leave.
Let the creatures on the paper speak for me.
I wish you could see.

It's a whale versus nine tigers
It's a whale versus nine tigers
How don't you understand
How don't you understand
It's a whale versus nine tigers
It's a whale versus nine tigers
Just wanna know who prevails
Just wanna know who prevails
How don't you understand

So you want me to speak. I see.
I just really don't feel the need.
It's not like I don't understand what's real, or the scale of what someone else could feel,
but it's not clear, wether you hear what I hear.

It's a whale versus nine tigers
It's a whale versus nine tigers
How don't you understand
How don't you understand
It's a whale versus nine tigers
It's a whale versus nine tigers
Just wanna know who prevails
Just wanna know who prevails
How don't you understand
