She Suffocates

Snapcase

we don't see her beyond her molded worth is she accepted or rejected we consume her shell she must refuse his pride this world she must defy defy they will sell her as a mindless games and you're a winner when you own her what we expect is vain doors don't open as she suffocates and she will teach us and make some change but we don't learn a thing we don't see her
we'll consume her
but we don't see her
