Night & Day

The Rambling Wheels

I'm feeling like I am the day
You are the night
I bring life, you bring doubt
You get bored by everything you see
You wanna hide, hide in the shadows
You're like winter, so bitter and coldWe are the day
We can ride golden rays of light
We are the sun that wants to save you from yourself
Running a knife across your veins is not an easy way out
Please believe in you my friend
Night and dayI see your head split in two
You moan life is so unfair
I've tried to reach you
But you're too far gone
I'm sorry I can't help you like you did
You're losing patience and you're losing the will to live
We won't follow you
We won't let you go
We won't follow you down
