Million Moons

Joselin

You got a thing about looking up at the stars
And you got eyes so bright with all of their love

And you deserve a sky;
made only for you on the best of nights.
You deserve a sky;
with a million moons
to light up your life.

You got a way of life I can't quite describe.
And you, you listen while nobody's around.

And you deserve a sound;
made only for you on the best of nights.
You deserve a sound;
To fill the silence
every time you close your eyes.

And you deserve a sky;
made only for you on the best of nights.
You deserve a sky;
with a million moons
to light up your life.

And you deserve a sound;
made only for you on the best of nights.
You deserve a sound;
To fill the silence
every time you close your eyes.

Don't close your eyes, I miss you every time.
Don't close your eyes, I miss you every time.
Don't close your eyes, I miss you every time.
