Jack Nimble

Lady Of The Sunshine

Lady of the Sunshine
Smoking GunJack NimbleJack be nimble, Jack be quick Jack jumped right over the candle stick to a flame he chose had a name called hell where the devils child drank blood and was always wellJack lived simple with his lady Jill till he come on home his heart she stole he caught her messing with another man so he got his gun and shot them downclose to Jill lying there all alone
he lost his mind beneath the stairs all aloneJack be nimble Jack, Jack be quick Jack jumped right over the candle stickClose to Jill his broken crown
All alone
See the growth stalk the goat
All aloneWe were young (Repeat until end)
