Of Rage and War

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You got Libya, you got the Russians
You got civilian planes crashing to the oceans
Airports full of terrorists, Nazi skins, anarchists
When are you gonna learn?Better listen to me, you son of a bitch
Better disarm those missiles, sleeping in the ditch
You have no goddamn right to do the things you do
The world would be a better place if we were rid of youOf rage and war
Of rage and war
Of rage and warEvery country's got the bomb, the scientists are working on Chemical weapons to melt the flesh with no source of defense
Shoot me, I'll shoot you like there's nothing better to do
Who's the loser in the end?Better listen to me, you son of a bitch
Better disarm those missiles, sleeping in the ditch
You have no goddamn right to do the things you do
The world would be a better place if we were rid of youOf rage and war
Of rage and war
Of rage and warWar broods in foreign lands, missiles launch upon command
Islam, Lebanon, what the hell is going on Ambassadors who say they try, negotiating suicide
Are you prepared to face the end?Of rage and war
Of rage and war
Of rage and war
