Sunk Loto

Everything around me is a negative surrounding Inside I'm drowning, away from the land Everybody's speaking but I'm not receiving the message you're portraying
Into my headI put the razor to my life
Hoping I can see the light
My heart beats inside (killing me)See my hands
Shake and twist
Have a fitThe ocean of tranquility
Flowing like a sinner's dream
I throw myself into the stream
It's all in my head
Take a piece of me tonight
Would anybody realise
How empty i would feel inside
I feel sick
