

No More Weapons (feat. Damian Marley)

Steel Pulse

Ouch! We don't really need x 2
Yeah! No No There's no time to beat around the BUSH
Now all the world is living in fear
The consequence a great disaster zone
The thought alone I cannot bear And now that war has raised its ugly head
And all I can predict is woe yeah!
This claim for power paints the city red
I isolate the Status Quo. We no want no weapons of mass destruction
We no want no weapons of mass destruction No we no really need
No no weapons no This has got to be the final conflict
Bestowed upon humanity
So much for a global coalition
A false sense of security We are just pawns in the scheme of things
No what our race or creed
Survivors of this holocaust
We international refugees We no want no weapons of mass destruction
We no want no weapons of mass destruction No no no lethal weapons
No no lethal weapons
No weapons no weapons This crave for power
Is one disaster, destruction's in the air
These ego trips, by heads of states, who giveth not a care
For all your children and all my children The future's in despair
No no no No no no
We do want no weapons no
