Friends & Lovers Intro

Marsha Ambrosius

Keeping through some of hardest times
But he made it through without me
Made it through
I've been to hell and back for you
I did everything that I could
For you,
Oh I, took you in after you lied to me
And yet you cried your tears, tears
And there was I was sorry
For all I have done to you
Now here we are
We can't be friends and lovers
Cause it would all end
In a hurting each other
You know we can't be friends and lovers
But baby I, I love you
But I can't do this, I can't
