Holes

Smile Empty Soul

I've been through everything I've seen
Religions and beliefs
But nothings ever really helped
I'll try drugs until I die
Breaking others lives
Until I really find myselfAnd all these people think they know
What's missing from my show?
Just admit that Jesus died for me
Take your bibles and go home'Cause as I'm walking through this life
I know that things aren't right
I don't know how to fill the holes
I keep falling in along the way
No matter what they say
No one has it figured outYou act like everything is great
There's nothing out of place
I can see right through the words you spin
You're burning up within
You're tired and you're thin
You can't believe God let you downAnd all these people think they know
What's missing from my show?
Just admit that Jesus died for me
Take your bibles and go home'Cause as I'm walking through this life
I know that things aren't right
I don't know how to fill the holes
I keep falling in along the way
No matter what they say
No one has it figured outAnd as I'm walking through this life
I know that things aren't right
I don't know how to fill the holes
I keep falling in along the way
No matter what they say
No one has it figured out
