

Remember (To Forget You)

We Are the In Crowd

All my exes live in Texas
Just a symptom of the times
And these miscommunications
We can leave between the lines How do I know you and me wont
make it if we don't try?
We're just stuck here in the mean time I gotta remember to forget you
'Cause you're always on my mind
I can never remember how I met you
And every time I try I can't find a way to cover your face
With the truth inside the lies
I gotta remember to forget you
'Cause you're always on my mind I've got a complex for every message
And I sit and wonder why
I've got letters stacked in boxes
And you're the subject every time How do I know
you and me wont
make it if we don't try?
We're just stuck here in the mean time I gotta remember to forget you
'Cause you're always on my mind
I can never remember how I met you
And every time I try I can't find a way to cover your face
With the truth inside the lies
I gotta remember to forget you
'Cause you're always on my mind Drowning in jealousy
Of people we wanna be
We're drowning in jealousy
Of people we wanna be I can't stand to be myself
I could be anybody else
We're drowning in jealousy (We're drowning in jealousy)
Of people we wanna be (Of people we wanna be) I'm so sick of being everything to everyone but me I gotta remember to forget you
'Cause you're always on my mind
I can never remember how I met you
And every time I try I can't find a way to cover your face
With the truth inside the lies
I gotta remember to forget you
'Cause you're always on my mind 'Cause you're always on my mind
