Someday

Purenrg

If it was up to me
My life would be a blue print on the table
And every year would have a label
I would know precisely the day that you would come and find me
I'd see your face (the one that I dream of)
I just can't wait
Cos I know
Someday, someone's gonna change my life
Some how someone's gonna make me smile
Like I never have before
Someday Someday
Somewhere, someone's gonna steal my heart
Some how we'll never ever be apart
And I can't wait for that someday
Someday isn't so far away
I lay awake at night wondering if I had waste the chances
Giving up on small romances
Then I look outside
You're wondering on the same midnight sky (you're waiting too)
I'm the one that you dream of
These dreams come true

Someday, someone's gonna change my life
Some how someone's gonna make me smile
Like I never have before
Someday Someday
Somewhere, someone's gonna steal my heart
Some how we'll never ever be apart
And I can't wait for that someday
Someday isn't so far away
Guess I'll never know if I passed you on the street the other day
Or maybe you are far across the ocean
Knowing every night I pray that some how he will send you my way
Someday, Someday, Someday
Someday, someone's gonna change my life
Some how someone's gonna make me smile
Like I never have before
Someday Someday
Somewhere, someone's gonna steal my heart

Some how we'll never ever be apart
And I can't wait for that someday
Someday isn't so far away
Someday isn't so far away
