

Puerto Cabezas, NI

Lewis Del Mar

High my blood, heavy like hot rain
I'm drowning you, colors mixing on a hot day, a hot day
(I finally found the rest of me)
In the streets without the street lights, no powerline
I am eclectic, I'm electrical
I finally found the rest of me My dancehall is all bodies now,
And they're burning sugar sweet, so sweet
And my old world is on fire now
As I move into the heat, the heat High my blood, fresh fish and sticky plantains
I am bound to you, by the mystery of my own name My dancehall is all bodies now
And they're burning sugar sweet, so sweet
And my old world is on fire now
As I move into the heat
As I move into the heat, the heat
Yeah
