Pretty Girls Make Graves

Too often we sit back and take what
Take what life gives us
Like holding a bad hand of cards Always folding instead of raising the stakes
Never wanna bluff and go for it
Afraid that you'll lose all you've got But you can't win big if you don't bet big
No one ever cleans house from the sidelines
Otherwise the world will pass you by
And you'll never see it go, yeah, you'll never see it go And you'll wake up one day wonder
Wonder where it all went and not
Understand why you made the choices you did I don't wanna live my life in regret
Everything's a learning experience
I don't wanna live my life in regret Too often we sit back and take what
Take what life gives us
Like holding a bad hand of cards Always folding instead of raising the stakes
Never wanna bluff and go for it
Afraid that you'll lose all you've got No one ever cleans house from the sidelines
Otherwise the world will pass you by
And you'll never see it go, yeah, you'll never see it go And you'll wake up one day wonder
Wonder where it all went and not
Understand why you made the choices you did [Incomprehensible] I don't wanna live my life in regret
Everything's a learning experience
Always folding instead of raising the stakes
Never wanna bluff and go for it
But you can't win big if you don't bet big
