

Enter the Cage

Adema

You'll hear them breaking bones Silently pacing
All fear erased here, it's time to face it
Cold sweats profusely, crowd chanting loudly
One goal pursuing, one thought consuming Now you're stepping inside
Where you can't be afraid No excuse will suffice
Deadly, quick, and precise, trained for this moment
No one else can own it, keep all eyes on me
One goal pursuing, one thought consuming Now, you're stepping inside where you can't be afraid
It's a matter of pride when you enter the cage
Put your heart on the line, it determines your fate
It's a matter of pride when you enter the cage Inside this octagon, eight sided nightmare just begun
Warriors, modern battle ground, can't let him get me down
No noise, just quiet now
One goal pursuing, one thought consuming Now, you're stepping inside where you can't be afraid
It's a matter of pride when you enter the cage
Put your heart on the line, it determines your fate
It's a matter of pride when you enter the cage When you enter the cage
(Get tapped out)
When you enter the cage
(Get tapped out)
When you enter the cage
(Get tapped out)
When you enter the cage
(Get tapped out)
When you enter the cage
(Get tapped out)
(Get tapped out) Now, you're stepping inside where you can't be afraid
It's a matter of pride when you enter the cage
Put your heart on the line, it determines your fate
It's a matter of pride when you enter the cage Now, you're stepping inside where you can't be afraid
It's a matter of pride when you enter the cage
Put your heart on the line, it determines your fate
It's a matter of pride when you enter the cage When you enter the cage
(Get tapped out)
When you enter the cage
(Get tapped out)
When you enter the cage
(Get tapped out)
When you enter the cage
(Get tapped out)
