Monsoon

Luka Bloom

Everyday is the rainy season
Every night is a full moon
Whenever I'm with you, darling
Love is a monsoon, love is a monsoonGoosebumps all around my skin
Whenever you come into the room
Fresh wild smell of jasmine
Love is a monsoon, love is a monsoonRainy day, it's coming my wayAlone I walk the hillside
Alone I pace the sand
Alone I think about you
Close my eyes, I kiss your handAlone I lick the rain
Streaming down upon your face
Alone I see the moment
We're together in a higher placeAlone I sing your praises
Alone I let you know
Alone you make the ripples
Honeywater afterglow
Love is a monsoon, love is a monsoonRainy day, it's coming my wayRain comes pouring down
Pouring downIn the wind, the kiss of wisdom
In the mountain, the silent touch
In the river, the juices flow
To the rhythm that I need so muchOutside the roar of thunder
Streets drip wet in the rain
Inside honeywater lingers
Please, God, we'll meet againEveryday is the rainy season
Every night is a full moon
Whenever I'm with you, darling
Love is a monsoon, love is a monsoonGoosebumps all around my skin
Whenever you come into the room
Fresh wild smell of jasmine
Love is a monsoon, love is a monsoon
Love is a monsoonRainy day, it's coming my way
