

Peace

The Anthemeers

Peace
By The Anthemeers
Â©2009

From the back seat of my head
I watch a war
Two fighters state their claims
For my soul
A cry, and in the darkest night,
The sparks fly
From the back seat of my head
I watch a war

Bound by chains of guilt
Who can forgive
By our own attempt
All is loss
The world waits to see
The great love
Conquering, all our shame
In victory

I bring my best to You,
I give my best to You!
