

Air Is Free

Johnossi

I never was a lonely drifter, slow brain
Shit I live for the money now
I never was afraid to speak my mind
Baby's got a baby sitter
A cocaine dealer, stack up the money now
I'll rather be a hustler than a clown When the world will be polluted by the ashes of the sun
Ain't nobody gonna tell me where to run
If there is a god she probably wants me to explore the universe
And if life is just a ride it should be fun And the air is free, I'll do whatever I want
I'm coming up
The air is free, I'll do whatever I want
I'm coming up My heart is going bang bang when I sing for you
I live for the moment now
Being in a one subconscious mind
Maybe I'm a one trick pony but I ride it ride it
Ride it ride it ride it honey
Maybe I'm a master of disguise When the world will be polluted by the ashes of the sun
Ain't nobody gonna tell me where to run
If there is a god she probably wants me to explore the universe
And if life is just a ride it should be fun And the air is free, I'll do whatever I want
I'm coming up
The air is free, I'll do whatever I want
I'm coming up Gonna sleep in december, in december
Waking up and it's summer, it's summer
Liberation of my life, liberation
Moving in to the light And the air is free, I'll do whatever I want
I'm coming up
The air is free, I'll do whatever I want
I'm coming up So the air is free, I'll do whatever I want
I'm coming up
The air is free, I'll do whatever I want
I'm coming up
