

A Love Like That (feat. Tony Mortimer)

MARTHA

feel the tension in here like your voice from out there I keep falling your words (sometimes I wish I didn't care) try to move out of this game but everything just stays the same now I'm getting over you letting the love come the one that makes you stay and feel like flying everyday I feel the sunshine in on you until it takes your breath away (ain't nobody there ain't nobody) somebody to love somebody to need to give a love like that (never brings you down) somebody who feels somebody to trust to give a love like that (everyone's around) someone who loves you and keeps you under my track (and never lets you fall) wherever you are whatever you do it all comes back to you you left your heart beating here like your shadow goes nowhere I keep falling back to you (sometimes I wish I didn't care) try to get out of this pain but I can only play in ring
now I'm getting over you letting the love come I'm gonna kiss ya from ya head to your toes then I'm gonna travel into your soul oil ya skin within hold you tight Yeah, I butter toast if you lick the knife And then I take a shower, maybe bubble the bath I'll wash yours, you wash mine yeah, we'll have a good laugh I'll be the sponge, the sponge that wets you down Then I'll be the towel upon your naked body wrapped around And then as our games come to an end

We'll start again start again

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>