

Demonheart (feat. Andr © Matos)

Luca Turilli

Confutatis maledictis

Confutatis maledictis

Tragedy storms him when demons spare her life

And all discover she has a demonheart

Demonheart!Feeling trapped in with the slimy creatures, now close to being killed

She soon revealed her forgotten sad past, first to herself

They smelled her flesh, ready to be devoured, but something happened

They moved away, seeming to be frightened, sparing her life

Shocked again, she opened the gates of her tragic past, and bloody images came back to her mindShe remembered the old mission, the dark comet's goal beyond the suns

The flight through that black holeConfutatis maledictis

Confutatis maledictis

Tragedy storms him when demons spare her life

And all discover she has a demonheart

Demonheart!She lived again in some frames of sorrow, that evil journey

Planned by the Arias' exploring section to find new worlds

But all that they found beyond their system was the black portal

Depths of oblivion came back to their world, once opened it

Arkan and the other warriors who observed the scene could not feel the same way now about that girlHe moved to her, taking her hand, running away fast from his old friends

All for her, he loved herConfutatis maledictis

Confutatis maledictis

Tragedy storms him when demons spare her life

And all discover she has a demonheart

Demonheart!Confutatis maledictis

Confutatis maledictis

Tragedy storms him when demons spare her life

And all discover she has a demonheart

Tragedy storms him when demons spare her life

And all discover she has a demonheart

Demonheart!
