

You Can Never Be Ready

Sunrise Avenue

Sometimes our hearts get broken
But keep them open
'Cause when it comes
You can never be ready Let it all out and I've depend, don't worry
Go all away, no fear, don't hide, it's over
You must feel lost and kind of scared to let go Bring all your scars and jump right in, here we go (here we go) Sometimes our hearts get broken
But keep them open
'Cause when it comes
You can never be ready Hold on, you can't let go now
This is your time
Hold the line
You can never be ready I've been there too, you know
It made me hurt
I thought I would die, but hey,
Still here, still breathing I felt so hard, it messed me up to the bone
But I'm not scared, no, I want more,
here we go (here we go) Sometimes our hearts get broken
But keep them open
'Cause when it comes
You can never be ready Hold on, you can't let go now
This is your time
Hold the line
You can never be ready Whooooow... You can never be ready Whooooow... You can never be ready
You can never be ready Sometimes our hearts get broken
But keep them open
(here we go) Sometimes our hearts get broken
But keep them open
'Cause when it comes
You can never be ready Hold on, you can't let go now
This is your time
Hold the line
You can never be ready!
