

Say

Mikal Cronin

Say, from thousand miles away
Seize it living and everything's just fine
Say, it's just the passing of days
Matters much anyway, hey
Say, find a way, watch it all come down
Say, announce to the world
It's like the day you ruined everything we knew
Inside, just wasting away
Sitting pretty, just coughing, laughing
Someday, find a way, to walk and go outside
It's so easy, running horses in my head
Say, getting tired of dreaming
Build a filter on everything I know
It's fun, start going ahead
It's just a matter of time before I go
Say, find a way, watch it beat and fall
It's so easy, running horses in my head
Just say, a thousand miles away
Seize it living and everything's just fine
I'm leaving, running into the dust
It's so easy to never see the lie
Someday, find a way
