

The Truth Is I Lied

Billy Joe Royal

It's been twenty-four hours
Since you walked away
If I knew where to call you
I know just what I'd say I'd tell you, I'm sorry I hurt you
And I know that I went too far this time
When I said, I don't love you
The truth is I lied I should have been more careful
With your tender heart
When I said all those mean things
Words that tore you apart Like I don't want you, I don't need you
I didn't mean it, it was only my pride
When I said, I don't love you
The truth is I lied
