Make the Cut

Number One Fan

Mother would be proud, I broke the strong again.
Another night, the perfect time, nothing was making sense.
Sorry I don't have the time.
Let it go, you'll be just fine.I woke up and you were on top of me
and it felt right and wrong at the same time
Should I waste my time if you were no part of this all along?
You were no part of this all along.Mother would be proud you broke the strong again.
Another night, the perfect time, but you can't remember it.I woke up, the world had fallen down around me.
You were still there, and I didnt care.
For the first time I knew, you were a part of this all along.
You were a part of this all along.Nightmares of hell, I'm dreaming of heaven.
Praying that I could make the cut.
Twenty four hours, sixty years.I woke up...Say what you want, you won't make it home.
You'll fall in love again.
Say what you want, everyone does.
You'll get it in the end.
