

The Ar

Tiamat

Music : Hagel, Sorychta

Lyrics : Edlund

Within the heart of every Man

 This symbol is its deep

 A truly all descending power

 But unfortunaly still asleep

You may put your hands before your eyes

 But its gleam is neverending

 How much you turn it inside out

 It conceals just understanding

 The five pointed grey star carven

 The sign of the Aryan race

 The five pointed grey star carven

 On the forehead of an evil face
