

Michelle with One "L"

The Get Up Kids

same hold from the same hands five years strong many times over and gone it's everything that i have to beat bridges much stronger and wide fewer and farther between we meet again i'll try to do well on my own distance between's never been this far i realize that this time was something that i always knew only a fool wouldn't see might as well start my drinking days now if i'm really alone it's tempting am i asking too much to keep you at arms length?
am i asking too much to keep you at home? please don't go
i know it's all gonna be fine and i know that this is what's right
