It's Gonna Work Out Fine

Manfred Mann

Darling, I've been to see the preacher man
Darling, I've started makin' wedding plans, oh, yeahIf your love is half as true
As the love I offer you
Oh, darling, I think it's gonna work out fineAnd I've got to tell you
Darling, you're startin' to get next to me
Baby, I'd better let that distance be
I think I'd betterYour lips set my soul on fire
Don't you see you're my one desire
Oh, darling, I think it's gonna work out fine(I think it's gonna work out fine) don't you see it will?
(I think it's gonna work out fine) it's gonna work out fine
(I think it's gonna work out fine) oh, yeah
I'm so glad that you're mine, all mineRemember, you used to call me Dapper Dan
That was in the good old days
The thriller, the ever-rated lovin' man, oh yeahWhole lots of girls used to be my speed
Now, pretty baby, you're all I need
Oh, darling, I know it's gonna work out fineDon't you see, darling
I know it's gonna work out fine
Let me tell you, baby
I'm sure it's gonna work out fineSo
Fine
