Broken

Travis Garland

Hey yeahh,
Ohh ohh whoaaa
You know the secret to your mistakes
But you never tell it babe
Over and over the lines you trace
You're stuck in your selfish ways
Just a beautiful girl with a heart that made of glass
Nobody would handle with care
And I gave you the world, but now it's starting to crack
And now you're learning you don't have a pray
So what it makes you think that I'll be the one to,
Take all your pain away and fix you.
You shatter the pieces all over the floor
Beware
Girl you're broken beyond repair
(Beyond repair ohhh)
I know the reason that I'm this way you should know better
Than to hold your heart in front of me, I'm amazed
When I can't put you back together.

Just a beautiful girl with a heart that made of glass
Nobody would handle with care
And I gave you the world, but now it's starting to crack
And now you're learning you don't have a pray
So what it makes you think that I'll be the one to,
Take all your pain away and fix you,
You shatter the pieces all over the floor
Beware
Girl you're broken beyond repair
Just a beautiful girl with a heart that made of glass
And I gave you the world, but now it's starting to crack
So what it makes you think I'll be the one to
Take all your pain away and fix you
Your shatter the pieces all over the floor
Be-ware
Girl you're broken beyond repair
You're broken beyond repair x2
You shatter the pieces all over the floor

Be-ware
Girl you're broken beyond repair
Broken beyond repair x3
