Dressed In Dreams

Brody Dalle

Where is the sun?
You're numb and dumb
Please I need the seeds of change
It's wearing a new dream
It's ripping at the seams
I've come undone
And there is one place left to run ,,.and that is,..Never let yourself give in
When you're trying to start again
Put on your dreams and let's goI've come so far and gone so low
I've fallen in decay
Always try to find a way out and up to better days
Are waiting for me
And I will come dressed up in dreamsNever let yourself give in
When you're trying to start again
Put on your dreams and let's go
