Nashville

Andrew Horn

I better move to Nashville
I better move to New York
If I'm ever gonna fulfill
The calling of my own heartIf your ever gonna love me
For what I think I'm worth
I better start looking
I better find it firstYou say, I'll make
All your dreams come true
How can you be sure
I can do that for youWhen I'm still searching
Trying to follow my heart
I'm past the beginning
And I'm still trying to startI better move to Nashville
I better move to New York
If I'm ever gonna fulfill
The calling of my own heartIf your ever gonna love me
For what I think I'm worth
I better start looking
I better find it firstYou look, in my eyes
Like I'm holding in my hands
Your whole life
As if I had a planBut I'm just holding on for dear life
Waiting just to find
What I think I'm meant to be
Why I'm in this life...
