

Consumed (Obsessive Compulsive)

Spineshank

Punctured lungs I'm out of breath
This time I'm suffocating
I've had enough now
Too numb there's no resisting
Becoming one
With all your failure
No coming back now
This bridge has been burned Try to cut the cord
Tear away
Or I will never be the same
Trust breaks like bone
Violence shows
Reject and throw it all away Consume the fight in me
Suspend reality
If it stops the room from spinning
Repressed identity
Escape reality You killed the cause
This keeps repeating
Live through the loss now
Redeem your enemies
Recycled thoughts
Feed your delusion
Your lie outgrows you
Becomes its own truth Still it seems so wrong
The way you think
And I will never understand
Faith broke like bone
Weakness shown
You lost and threw it all away Consume the fight in me
Suspend reality
If it stops the room from spinning
Repressed identity
Escape reality
If it stops the room from spinning Puncture my lungs I've never felt your emptiness
It makes me sick now
Obsessive with your reasons
Compulsive with your failure Try to cut the cord
Tear away
Or I will never be the same

Trust breaks like bone
Violence shows
Reject and throw it all away Consume the fight in me
Suspend reality
If it stops the room from spinning
Repressed identity
Escape reality
If it stops the room from spinning How can you live with yourself?
