

The Hunt

Taufiq Qureshi

as the foxes hunt all the chickens start to run next thing I know my neck no longer has a front all the wars are made
I won't sleep until my grave
I am young but I am brave and I'm not your slave
I will swear to you now that I'm not what they say I have a sickness in my head that won't go away and by the time the bugs eat their way out of my skull will you still say I love you?
will you still want my soul?
as the lions hunt
all the zebras start to run but I refuse to become somebody else's lunch cause all the wars are made
I won't sleep until my grave
I am young but I am brave
and I'm not your slave
I will swear to you now that I'm not what they say
I have a sickness in my head that won't go away
and by the time the bugs eat their way out of my skull
will you still say I love you?
