In Flames You Burn

Dream Evil

Oh, God forbid this bloody war
I see my knights falling one by one so here I am, in this fight I'm alone
I'm stuck here in this hellhole on my ownTaste the blood, tears of pain
Memories from the past strike through my mind
My royal blood begins to boil
Deadly wounds can't stop me now, I still stand strong
I just can't dieSurrender is no option for me now
Bless those souls I send to hell
If you dare just look into my eyes
My steel is warm my face is stained with bloodOne by one I hit them to the ground
One by one I see their heads roll
Anyone against me taste my sword
Anyone who'll challenge me will die!You killed my men, raped my land and you ruined our lives
Still I stand, in command; in flames you burn
You will die, by my hand; forever you're condemned
'Cause I am in command; in flames you burnNo, it's no use for you to beg
I will send you down to hell
I can't die, my faith is far too strong
In the flames of hell is where you belongOne by one I hit them to the ground
One by one I see their heads roll
Anyone against me taste my sword
Anyone who'll challenge me will dieYou killed my men, raped my land, and you ruined our lives
Still I stand, in command; in flames you burn
You will die, by my hand; forever you're condemned
'Cause I am in command; in flames you burnYou killed my men, raped my land, and you ruined our lives
Still I stand, in command; in flames you burn
You will die, by my hand; forever you're condemned
'Cause I am in command; in flames you burn
You burn
You burn
You burn!
