

In Flames You Burn

Dream Evil

Oh, God forbid this bloody war
I see my knights falling one by one so here I am, in this fight I'm alone

I'm stuck here in this hellhole on my ownTaste the blood, tears of pain

Memories from the past strike through my mind

My royal blood begins to boil

Deadly wounds can't stop me now, I still stand strong

I just can't dieSurrender is no option for me now

Bless those souls I send to hell

If you dare just look into my eyes

My steel is warm my face is stained with bloodOne by one I hit them to the ground

One by one I see their heads roll

Anyone against me taste my sword

Anyone who'll challenge me will die!You killed my men, raped my land and you ruined our lives

Still I stand, in command; in flames you burn

You will die, by my hand; forever you're condemned

'Cause I am in command; in flames you burnNo, it's no use for you to beg

I will send you down to hell

I can't die, my faith is far too strong

In the flames of hell is where you belongOne by one I hit them to the ground

One by one I see their heads roll

Anyone against me taste my sword

Anyone who'll challenge me will dieYou killed my men, raped my land, and you ruined our lives

Still I stand, in command; in flames you burn

You will die, by my hand; forever you're condemned

'Cause I am in command; in flames you burnYou killed my men, raped my land, and you ruined our lives

Still I stand, in command; in flames you burn

You will die, by my hand; forever you're condemned

'Cause I am in command; in flames you burn

You burn

You burn

You burn!
