Egyptian Hip Hop

in the dark there's a storm in the darklight in my darklight in between words empty spaces its on my mind its a coal mine you are burying my dove in quakes don't you hesitate to elate chains are clouds for skies pour rain it falls

they adore us they abhor us its in their light theres no heart in the regions of the free-er they will always try

dont you hesitate to delay
