I Am Terrified

IAMX

You look good in leather in bars,
Breaking things, breaking hearts.
You look good in pleasure, in hotels.
Loneliness is the key to break that spell.

I am terrified, I think too much,
I get emotional when I drink too much,
I buy every cry, cause I don't trust,
I am terrified, I think too much.

In your blood with,
The pride of a million sleasy moments behind,
Who'll release you from the circus?
The railway, but the gravity between us will keep us safe!

I am terrified, I think too much,
I get emotional when I drink too much,
I buy every cry, cause I don't trust,
I am terrified!

I am terrified, I think too much,
I get emotional when I drink too much,
I buy every cry, cause I don't trust,
I am terrified!
I am terrified!
I am terrified!
Cause I drink too much,
Cause I drank too much!
