

To There From Here

Colin Hay

Fan the fires of love that burn in our hearts eternally
Our eyes are not enough to see what we know internally
And how could we know there's a place you and I can go
And I still can't quite believe it, always want to leave it
Oh and there lies the love
And how do we get to there from here? When storm winds rip the rains to far and beyond over silver sea
A brighter light remains, it glimmers and shines incandescently
And now we can almost hear it
Sometimes we get near it when time stands still
And I still don't understand it, never could have planned it
Oh and there lies the love
And how do we get to there from here? And as I look up above we're bathed in universal love
Peace and happiness are here to stay
There's no time for regret it sailed into the mists of yesterday
There's no words to forget
Just as the dawn steals you dream away
And how could we know there's a place you and I can go
And I don't have to believe it, just have to receive it
Oh and there lies the love
And how do we get to there from here?
There lies the love
And how do we get to there from here?
